

LOCAL NOTES.

Sample Copies

In response to applications, received from every quarter of the globe, from one to three dozen sample copies of this paper are sent out every week to parties desiring information concerning Arizona. Parties receiving such sample copies are requested to forward not less than $1.25 to this office, and receive the paper three months, as they cannot form an adequate idea of the country from a single issue.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Richardson have just brought in from their range a beautiful Abundant cow, which the former is breaking for a family horse.

Prescott is liable to have a boom, and a big one, whether a certain class of people want it or not. May just as well fall into line and get ready for the procession when it moves.

Mr. Jones and wife, the former of whom will take Mr. Wilson's place, as traffic manager of the Prescott and Arizona Central railroad, during his absence in the east, came in on to-day's train.

S. S. Ackers, in town from the Mogollon mountains. He says that, notwithstanding the past winter has been the coldest ever experienced in that section, there has been no loss of stock occasioned by it.

Miss Curtis has rented the Williams house, and will take charge of it April 1st. We understand that it is her intention to run a dining room in connection with the house in the building formerly occupied by the Club saloon. The lots adjoining it on the west are also reported to have been purchased, with a view of adding to the building and forming a single hotel.

FROM FRIDAY'S DAILY.
Good Friday.
J. R. Ashby, of Big Bag, is in town. Tomorrow closes the season for Lent. Match is preparing to "go out like a lamb."

Prescott is a pretty well sidewalked town.
John Ellis is now located in San Diego.

The funeral of Mrs. Rhodes took place this afternoon.
F. S. Cockburn has returned from San Francisco.

Another of the Nigger Well murders has been captured.
A number of new sidewalks are being built by property owners.

The cattlemen will meet in convention in Prescott tomorrow.

Newspaper publishers in this territory are warned that it is against the law to use manuscript wrappers for sending papers through the mails.

L. M. Olden, who has just returned from an assessing trip through the southern part of the county, reports a liberal return to him of property by tax payers.

H. F. (Caribon) Brown, who returned recently from San Diego, says the Spencer in jail there, for killing Farnsworth, is not the Charles Spencer formerly of Prescott.

The Arizona Miner was established March 9th, 1864, and has been published continuously ever since, being consolidated with the Arizona Journal, August 15th, 1885.

At the last meeting of the Prescott Chautauque Reading Circle, Mrs. J. A. Rush was elected an honorary member of the club. Her name was inadvertently omitted in the report.

Hon. W. G. Stewart and Geo. H. Tinker, of Flagstaff, came in on to-day's train, to attend the meeting of the county republican central committee to-morrow, of which they are members.

Mayor Howard has raised a subscription to defray the expenses of Judge W. C. Berry, an old-timer, from Canyon Diablo to Prescott, as the latter is in poor health and desires to come here to spend his remaining days.

J. W. Ackley, of Helena, Montana, arrived here to-day, with Captain Braun. Mr. Ackley is prospecting this section of Arizona with a view of locating here to enjoy the benefits of our glorious climate.

Mr. Wardrobe and Miss Campbell, who, with Mrs. Wardrobe, have been the guests of Lieutenant Palmer and wife at Whipple, left for their home at Waukesha, Wisconsin, yesterday. Mrs. Wardrobe will remain for some time with her daughter, Mrs. Palmer.

Thomas Davis, the enterprising traveling member of the firm of H. S. Bridge & Co., left this afternoon for the towns on the Atlantic & Pacific. Mr. Davis has traveled through this territory for several years, is known by everybody, is thoroughly reliable, and as a consequence does a big business.

We are in receipt of two communications from the Tucson democratic club, urging the adoption of the declaration of principles recently adopted by it, and also the election of delegates who will adhere strictly to them. Guess the secretary of the club has been sending his literature into the wrong camp, as it is our purpose not to meddle with democratic politics.

We can heartily endorse the following from the Tombstone Prospector: "Nothing is so disgusting to a stranger as the spectacle of two or three newspapers in a town eternally picking at each other. A merchant, a mining man, or a dispenser of news never benefits himself or a community by trying to disparage the efforts of his neighbors to get along in the world."

Col. Bevans returned yesterday from a trip to Williamson valley, where he went to investigate the character of certain lands there, to determine if they were subject to entry under the desert land act. It is rumored that application for entry of lands there, under the desert land act have been made at the land office, which will be protested by the special agent.

FROM SATURDAY'S DAILY.
V. F. Blake has returned from a visit to the Santa Maria country.
E. M. Sanford left to-day for Kingman, where he goes to attend court.

Hugh McCrum, owner of the Palace saloon building, is in town.
Ten passengers, two carloads of grain and a lot of merchandise came in on to-day's train.

The Arizona Miner was not denied to our great extent, but was simply carried to the Journal, at the age of 21 years, in 1885.

Judge Wright will leave on to-morrow's train for Kingman, to hold a term of court there.

N. L. Griffin left to-day for Lynx creek, to commence work on some claims owned by him there.

B. C. Williams has sold the Hualpai mining claim, Humboldt district, to Louis Johnson and T. B. Wade.

March has kept up her tradition this year, coming in like a lion, with a big storm, and going out like a lamb, with pleasant May weather.

A. L. Grow, department commander of the Grand Army of the Republic, of Arizona, and also Grand Master of the Arizona Grand Lodge I. O. O. F., is in town.

Does anyone know a man named Samuel F. Robinson in Arizona? If so, will you confer a favor by communicating the knowledge to F. E. Robinson, Waterloo, Iowa.

The San Francisco Chronicle makes a good suggestion to Texas, to dispose of her surplus by paying its demands held by her citizens against the State, in the shape of land certificates.

Our amiable contemporary very kindly declares a dividend for us, and even goes so far as to tell us how to spend our money. At present we are rustling for grub, with an occasional dollar to apply on our debts.

Without attempting to reply to, or refute a single charge made by this paper against Mayor Hewitt, the Courier's second choice for president, our contemporary says it was contemptible in us to dare say aught of his hero.

The names of the Mexicans arrested at Culture for complicity in the murder and robbery at Nigger Well are Valles and Vasquez. Deputy Murphy is on the trail of the two remaining murderers, with good prospects of capturing them before they reach Sonora.

Messrs. Boggs and Taft, who came in from Big Bug to-day, report the loss by fire, last night, of Douglas Gray's assaying office. Mr. Gray had just completed the office and had made seven assays when the fire occurred. Loss is about $500.

The JOURNAL-MINER extends its congratulations to John G. Tinker, a pioneer type of this office, on his marriage to Miss Edna G. Hill. The groom is an exceptionally steady and industrious young man, and the bride is said to be one of Flagstaff's fairest and best daughters. May happiness and prosperity attend them.

The Pacific Printer, speaking of the expense of running a daily paper, says: "What duty does the employing printer owe to himself and to the trade? He is a public necessity, and he must compel the public to pay for his work a price sufficient, not only to yield a reasonable profit on each individual job, but also to reimburse him for the unusual expenses attending his business—expenses which he cannot escape even by the most careful management."

The county republican central committee held a meeting this afternoon, at which a call for primaries and a county convention were ordered. The primaries will be held on Saturday, April 14th, to elect delegates to the county convention, which will be held in Prescott on Saturday, April 21st, to elect twenty delegates to the territorial convention, to be held in Phoenix, April 24th. The representation to the county convention is the same as that of the county convention of 1886, with the exception of Prescott and Flagstaff, the latter of which was changed from six to seven, and the former from ten to nine delegates. A resolution was also adopted that representation from the various precincts should be in the persons of bona fide residents of the precincts, either as delegates or by proxy.

FROM MONDAY'S DAILY.
Governor Zulus is in Yuma.
Prescott needs a health officer.
Billy Vignus is up from Phoenix.
Bill Biends were abroad to-day.

Brush rigs just received at Aiken's.

Flagstaff is agitating the question of securing a better water supply.

Hon. W. G. Stewart and Geo. H. Tinker left for home yesterday.
The call for primaries and county convention appears in this issue.

P. L. Kasher has some very fine imported cigars at the Cabinet saloon.
Frank D. Wells is a candidate for election as city marshal of Phoenix.

A liberal union has been formed at Tempe, with C. T. Hayden as its president.
William Wilkerson took charge of the office of clerk of the district court to-day.

Robert McMillan Rogers is in from the Verde.
J. W. Dougherty and family returned to-day from their visit to California and the east.

C. A. Luke and wife, former residents of this place, arrived yesterday from Phoenix.
A car load of Gallows cows, belonging to parties named Dougherty, came in yesterday.

Martin Maier has added a lunch room to his Exchange saloon, and provides fine lunches now.
Harris Baldwin and wife, accompanied by Judge Wright and wife, left for Mohave county yesterday.

Read the new advertisement of M. Goldwater & Bro. in this issue. Now is the time to secure bargains.
J. H. Hamilton, who is visiting Prescott, says he has seven acres of wheat in Peoples valley which is fully ten inches high.

Thomas Long is making considerable improvement in the appearance of the Hall Way house since purchasing the property.
The meeting of stock men was well attended on Saturday. But little business was done, when the meeting adjourned until July 24.

It is rumored that Thomas Gales has been requested to tender his resignation as superintendent of the territorial prison, on account of ill health.
Butchers and others are directed to the advertisement in this issue, of Campbell & Baker, who have a few thousand fat cattle, as well as other stock, for sale.

The services of a night watchman have been dispensed with by the city council, and the money thus saved will be applied in cleaning streets and alleys. The change is a good one.

N. A. Morford, grand secretary of the grand lodge of I. O. O. F., and editor of the Phoenix Herald, one of the solid republican papers of this territory, arrived on yesterday's stage.

At the meeting of the county republican central committee, on Saturday, J. B. Thomas, of Flagstaff, a son of our "uncle Chet's," was elected as a member, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of J. N. Berry.

The tar-barrel, as an April fool fire, at 4 o'clock a. m., is "auspicious." It did not work Sunday morning, notwithstanding the fuselage of pistol shots. The April fool joke will have to devise something new.

Herbert Taylor, the missing sheep man reported drowned a few weeks since, is alive and well, at Kanab, Utah, the Champion says. Others say he is at Nebraska City, Nebraska.

Our contemporary accuses us of stealing its telegrams. Fact is, we obtain them from the Albuquerque Democrat or Phoenix Herald. If they arrive here by mail a day ahead of telegraph service it is not our fault.

Will J. Curry is up from Phoenix, on a brief visit. From the merry twinkle of his eye, his visit is not one of pleasure. Will has a host of friends here who are glad to see him, and who wish him—well perhaps it is premature yet to mention it.

The Champion says that the Arizona Stone company employ thirteen men at their quarry. A 1500 foot side-track is being put in, which will enable the company to work a large force, and it is the intention to work at least 30 men after the switch is completed.

W. G. Wingfield and daughter had a narrow escape from drowning, at Camp Verde, on Saturday. The river was very much swollen, and in attempting to cross, the wagon bed was lifted from the wagon and upset in the stream. Miss Wingfield went under three times, and it was with the greatest difficulty that her father succeeded in rescuing her and in reaching the shore in safety.

The Arizona was taking into itself the credit of securing better mail service to Vulture. We doubt if a post office official at Washington ever saw the paper.

To Superintendent Beggs, of the stage company, belongs the credit of securing this service. His representations to that department, backed by those of Special Agent Howard, who was authorized to investigate and report to the department when here, were what secured the change of service.

Mr. and Mrs. Padgham, the latter a sister of A. A. Moore, accompanied by their daughter, are visiting Prescott. Mr. Padgham's health is not good, and while en route, a few years ago, from Kansas to Pomona, California, he stopped a short time in Prescott, and was greatly benefited. Should the climate have the same effect on him this year, he will remain here during the summer. They are at present the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Erwin.

The funeral of the late W. B. Holden will take place to-morrow (Tuesday) afternoon at 3 o'clock, from the undertaking rooms of A. G. Randall. Deceased was formerly a resident of Prescott, but returned to the east and contracted consumption, and postponing his return to Prescott until it had obtained such a hold on him that there was no hope, he came here again only to live a few weeks. During his illness he was kindly cared for by Mrs. Wilson and others.

Billy Vignus is back again at his old place with Sam Hill.

Oh, for a good smoke! Aiken has it—the "Key West Bouquet."

Mrs. Brown has built a sidewalk in front of the hospital building.
Dr. and Mrs. B. B. Halsey returned to-day from their wedding trip.

Thos. Humphreys left for his Williamson valley ranch this afternoon.
Goose Flat property owners are making decided improvements to their property.

Wm. Wilkerson has filed his official oath and bond as clerk of the district court.
J. L. Fisher is making improvements to his iron store building, increasing its capacity.

John Sorg has been painting and otherwise improving his Granite street property.
Lovers of good liquor should try the Monogram whisky, for sale by M. Goldwater & Bro.

The telephone dispatches announce that T. J. Dunkel, of Prescott, has been granted a pension.
New invoice of Jackson county, Kentucky, whisky just received at the Prescott Sample rooms.

Henry M. Clark, of Williamson Valley, has sold 120 acres of land to W. C. Bashford et al., for $2,000.
Buy your Louisiana State Lottery tickets of A. Aiken, who has the agency for the same, in Prescott.

Kentucky sour mash whisky double standard goods and genuine Tennessee white at the Cob Whisky.
D. C. Thorne has leased the Palace saloon, and will renovate and repair the place and open it up May 1st.

If you want a drink that is both mild and delicious, try the Crabapple Champagne cider, at the Sazerac saloon.
Will J. Curry has placed the JOURNAL-MINER under obligations for a number of beautiful Indian relics.

J. L. Fisher was elected president and A. G. Oliver secretary of the newly organized stock association, on Saturday.
If you want a piano or organ cheap, and on easy terms, call on N. H. Tallman, Bellevue Hotel, Prescott, Ariz.

A six horse team belonging to Mr. Pierce pulled out from W. C. Bashford & Co's yesterday, loaded with supplies for the Congress mine.
Reports at this time of year from the county surrounding Prescott were never so favorable as at present. Stock on all the ranges are reported to be in prime condition, and feed was never better. The present year promises to be a prosperous one for farmers, ranchers and stock raisers.

Hon. L. Bashford is arranging for important improvements to his business property on the north side of the plaza. The three stores, now occupied by Mrs. Sullivan, A. Aiken and J. W. Roberts will be consolidated into two large ones, one of which will be occupied by Mr. Aiken, and the other by Mrs. Sullivan. Mr. Roberts will move his gun store into office now on Cortez street.

The funeral of the late W. B. Holden was well attended this afternoon. Services were conducted by Revs. H. W. Houlding and L. Phil. Smith, and were very impressive. Friends of the deceased, who live at Skeoweghan, Maine, can have the consolation of knowing that, although among comparative strangers at the time the summons came for his departure from this world, every attention and kindness was bestowed upon him in his sickness, and he received the rites of a Christian burial.
